
ANTONIO ANDRÉS-PUEYO

CV

PARTICIPANT AT:

NEUROETHICS: FROM LAB TO LAW. A SCIENTIFIC SCRUTINY OF SOCIABILITY, RESPONSIBILITY AND CRIMINALITY

November , 12th-13th, 2012, Barcelona

Antonio Andres-Pueyo, PhD. is professor of psychology and criminology at the Department of Personality, Assessment and Psychological Treatment, Director of the Master in Criminological and Forensic Psychology in Barcelona University, Barcelona, Spain

Dr. Andrés Pueyo has been head of the PhD. Program on Personality Development and Abnormal Behavior of this University. Director of the Advanced Study Group on Violence at the University of Barcelona (GEAV-UB) and the principal investigator (PI) of several research projects funded by government and private entities in relation with prison management risk for violence (RISCANVI project), risk assessment in intimate partner violence (RVD-BCN Project). He has published several books and papers in their areas of interest: prediction of violence, aggression, risk assessment in prison and juvenile justice.

B-DEBATE IS AN INITIATIVE OF:

